Introducción

Esta tercera entrega de la bibliografía de los estudios de Emar completa y amplía las dos anteriores, publicadas respectivamente en Ugarit-Forschungen 35 (2003) y 37 (2005)¹. La versión completa, que integra las tres entregas, se encontrará en la dirección de internet www.ieiop.com/emar.

Queremos expresar nuestro agradecimiento a los Profesores John Huehnergard (Harvard University), Richard S. Hess (Denver Seminary) y Walther Sallaberger (Universität München) por las indicaciones bibliográficas que han tenido la amabilidad de aportarnos para este nuevo suplemento, enriqueciéndolo sustancialmente. Los autores agradecerán cualquier añadido y corrección para futuras entregas de esta bibliografía, que pueden hacerse llegar indistintamente a las direcciones e-mail: bfaist@zedat.fu-berlin.de, jjjustel@ieiop.csic.es, jpvita@ieiop.csic.es.
