Introducción

Los primeros textos de Emar fueron editados en 1983–1984 y los primeros informes arqueológicos publicados en 1975. Pero es a partir de la edición en cuatro volúmenes de D. Arnaud en 1985–1987 cuando la bibliografía sobre esta ciudad comienza a incrementarse a ritmo siempre creciente. Por otra parte, las últimas ediciones de documentos, en 2000 y 2002, así como las nuevas excavaciones llevadas a cabo por la Universidad de Tübingen en cooperación con la Dirección de Antigüedades siria, hacen prever un aumento considerable de los estudios en este campo. Por esta razón, nos parece útil ofrecer un estado actual de las publicaciones dedicadas a Emar, una bibliografía lo más completa y actualizada posible, que pueda resultar útil como instrumento de trabajo tanto al estudiante como al especialista. La bibliografía se presenta clasificada temáticamente y una misma publicación puede encontrarse bajo diferentes epígrafes.

Es nuestra intención mantener esta bibliografía actualizada, tanto en las páginas de Ugarit-Forschungen como por medio de internet. Por ello, estaríamos agradecidos a cualquier colega que pudiera señalarnos referencias bibliográficas omitidas o bien vinculadas a publicaciones poco conocidas en nuestra especialidad. Los añadidos y correcciones pueden enviarse a cualquiera de las siguientes direcciones e-mail: bfaist@zedat.fu-berlin.de, jjjustel@ieiop.csic.es, jpvita@ieiop.csic.es.
