

CONTENTS

Introduction	1
 Part One
I. Origins, Transformation, and Characteristics of Chinese Literati Memorial Painting	9
 II. Case Studies of Literati Memorial Painting from the 15th to the 17th Century
1. The Significance of the Colophon	20
Liu Jue (1410-1472) and Shen Zhou (1427-1509)	20
Yun Shouping's (1633-1690) Ferrying a Crane	23
2. Representing Death and the Way of Imitation	28
Wen Zhengming (1470-1559) and Lu Shidao (1510?-1573?)	28
3. The Theme of Filial Piety	33
Tang Yin's (1470-1524) and Yu Zhiding's (1647-1716) Fengmu tu	34
Shitao's (1642-1707) The Ancestral Tombs of the Fei Family	38
4. The Ming Nostalgia	41
Xiang Shengmo's (1597-1658) Venerable Friends	42
Chen Hongshou's (1598-1652) Elegant Gathering	45
Gui Zhuang's (1613-1673) The Ink Bamboo and Poems from the Travelling in Yue	50
 Part Two
III. Wu Li and his Xingfu Scroll	56
1. Wu Li's (1632-1718) Life and Art	56
2. Documentary, Verbal, and Calligraphic Analysis	63
Description, Seals and Dating	63
Wu Li's Inscription and Calligraphic Style	65
Xu Zhijian's (1612-1700) Colophon	72
The Other Two Colophons	75

3. Visual Representations, Motifs, and Meanings	78
The Pine Tree and the Crane	78
Emptiness and the Lotus Seat	82
Old Leafless Trees	88
Rocks and Bamboo	93
The Mountains and the Clouds	95
The Winding Road	100
4. Socio-Historical and Socio-Religious Issues	104
The Chan-Buddhist Monk Morong (?-1671)	104
The Xingfu Chapel	113
Chan Buddhist Funeral Rites	115
Memorial Rites and the Three Years Mourning	119
The Ritual of zhaohun (Calling back the soul)	125
Historical Aspects of Death, Soul, and the Netherworld	135
Wu Li's Attitude towards Death and the Netherworld	139
Concluding Perspectives	146
List of Figures	151
Bibliography	159